

Gloria Rogers is a proud alumnus of the Milwaukee Public Schools (MPS) system. It has always been her goal to be an agent for change empowering educators to improve the lives of young children. To prepare for this endeavor she obtained a Bachelor of Science in Education from Lakeland College, a Master of Arts in Curriculum, and Instruction, and a second Master in Supervisor and Administration from National-Louis University. She is currently pursuing her doctoral degree in education, the concentration of study is “Culturally Responsive Trauma Practices”.

Gloria has volunteered countless hours in the community throughout her professional career and personal ministry. She has her dedicated time after school to lead and direct a drama club for MPS students from kindergarten to 8th grade. She also volunteered as a school cheerleading coach.

In the Milwaukee community, Gloria builds capacity through real-life theatrical stage plays. Her plays open the eyes of youth and foster positive generational relationships. The productions provide confidence speaking, life problem-solving pathway skills, therapeutic theater healing, and social and emotional support. She puts God first and lives her life by Jeremiah 29:11.

Gloria has taught and touched the lives of many wonderful families in the MPS district for over 24 years. She is also a part-time instructor for Milwaukee Area Technical College.

