Darcy Luoma Coaching & Consulting, LLC (Contractor) will provide team building services for Milwaukee Receptions Twilight Staff consisting of: 1)Creating an assessment to gain insights on current challenges. This will help Contractor learn specific examples of where employees struggle and need to improve. This will include an electronic survey for participants to complete. 2)Designing a virtual retreat. The plan will allow the team to increase their awareness of what will help them work better together and develop an action plan and accountability for implementation. 3)Conducting a Debriefing/Integration call to discuss the learnings from the retreat and the best ways to maximize the investment. In addition, Contractor will explore concrete ways to continue building upon the new awareness and momentum from the assessment and workshop and identify tangible next steps to implement. Contractor agrees to hold all information received during this engagement with 100% confidentiality, and to promptly return all emails and phone calls. Services will: 1. Create a strong team identity, camaraderie, and sense of shared purpose. 2. Allow team members to share their questions and concerns in a safe environment to raise systems awareness of the team dynamics. 3. Build a strong team that works well together (an opportunity to integrate new employees), communicates effectively, and handles conflict positively based on a deeper understanding of different personality styles. 4. Revisit a team alliance to identify the desired culture/atmosphere the team wants to create and how they want to be together when it gets difficult. 5. Identify specific actions to lead the team.
