Milwaukee Repertory Theatre (Contractor) shall provide South Division High School 1515 W Lapham Blvd, a one-hour session on Tuesdays with a ten-hour curriculum during the school day to prepare students for the Next Narrative Monologue Competition, a multi-faceted arts program designed to inspire students to express themselves and build self-confidence through theater. The monologues are used to empower students to explore themes of gender, race, class, inclusivity, immigration, cultural celebration, family and community. At the regional competition, students perform monologues from the approved compendium for the chance to win college scholarships, cash prizes, and a trip to New York City to perform at the famous Apollo Theater in the national competition. Nationals provides opportunities for Milwaukee youth to connect with youth from different regions across the country. During the ten-hour in-school residency, students will learn how to deconstruct, analyze, and interpret a piece of text, further honing their character analysis and text evidence utilization skills; explore the historical and cultural worlds of themonologues and how they relate to their own lives and communities; and build confidence in their performance abilities.A Teaching Artist will visit selected classrooms at each site for one hour per day, one to two times per week. Programs are $100/hour/classroom, for up to 30 students, for a ten-hour program the cost is $1,000. This amount includes curriculum development, Teaching Artist training, planning meetings with the school partners, Teaching Artist wages, and any necessary materials and supplies.
