Dear Adria,

On September 3, 2019, Sedgwick completed its purchase of York Risk Services Group (“York”). As we begin doing business as Sedgwick, there will be no changes to our existing relationship. At this point and for the immediate future, the only change is York’s parent company.

Current contracts, including service obligations and pricing arrangements, will remain in force unless the contracts themselves provide otherwise.

Sedgwick is a well-established and growth-oriented organization with a distinct focus on customer service. Rest assured, you can expect to continue receiving the same outstanding level of service from the same team that has been serving you.

As we transition to Sedgwick over the coming months, we are committed to providing you with necessary updates and communications, and to finding new opportunities for enhanced capabilities and even greater value.

Sincerely,

Scott Rogers

President, Client Services
