

Milwaukee Excellence

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this as formal notification that the board of directors of Milwaukee Excellence has terminated the employment of Mr. Maurice Thomas, founder, president and chief executive officer. Mr. Rodney Lynk, vice president and chief academic officer, has agreed to assume interim leadership of the school. Mr. Lynk has been with Milwaukee Excellence in various capacities since our second year of operations and is intimately involved in all aspects of the school. We do not expect any interruption to academics or operations as part of this decision.
