Casa Romero Renewal Center Casa Romero's (CR) program, "Journeys: Exploring Identity and Voice through the Arts," offers after-school workshops, overnight retreats, and summer day camps that give low-income, urban youth opportunities to work with professional artists as they explore various forms of artistic expression. Visual arts, poetry, creative writing, and music are used as vehicles for youth to build self-esteem, develop critical thinking skills, and voice their message while developing a cultural lens. The goal of the program is to empower participants to use the arts to communicate their unique voices and as a way to make a positive impact in their community.

Proposal Summary Character Kids will provide a comprehensive theater elective to 7th and 8th grade students at Fernwood Montessori for the 2022-2023 school year. Company Description Character Kids is a youth theater program that provides after school classes, summer camps and daytime drama programs to schools, community centers and park districts. Our mission is to help children develop imagination, social skills and a positive self image through the performing arts. We aim to build social and emotional skills through acting, singing and musical theater dance. As a mobile children's theater company, we offer flexibility to school administrators, convenience to parents and familiarity to students. We want to create a safe, encouraging and creative atmosphere for students to build character both onstage and off. Class Description Character Kids will provide a comprehensive drama program that includes instruction in the basics of theater, stage directions, pantomime skills, basic improvisation, character movement and development, and vocal projection/public speaking. Students will learn these concepts through theater games and exercises, as well as ensemble work on a script throughout the class. Each trimester will culminate in a performance of the script and/or scene work. Most importantly, students will learn valuable life skills through these activities including listening and responding, teamwork, confidence, emotional literacy and empathy. Curriculum is always specifically tailored to each grade level. Program Proposal- We propose a 75 minute block that meets once per week for twelve weeks.- We will offer a theater elective for each trimester of the 2022-2023 school year.- Maximum participation for each trimester is to be set at 13 students.- Day and time of the elective is to be determined.

In order to maintain quality programming, UEC will provide instructional programs for a maximum of twenty-eight people per visit with a minimum of two UEC instructors for each field trip. Depending on the length of a program, a school day can either represent one full day to two half-day field trips. Transportation for one class room, a maximum of 28 people ages 4 and above to all field trips to match our school's schedule. Please contact us at least 1 month in advance for classes that exceed 28 students. There will be an additional charge of $100.00 for group sizes greater than 30. Our buses are not suitable for transporting students in wheelchairs therefore the school is responsible for arranging alternative transportation for students in wheelchairs. Pre and post lesson materials and complementary resources to better align trips with classroom curriculum and Science and Environmental Education support for your teachers. We experience with wildlife, science teaching experience and close contacts with other non-formal education centers in the area. The cost to your school for 16 half-day programs is $3760. Schools fee for the 2022-2023 school year are $235 per half-day program. Per MPS contracting guidelines, you will not be required to pay until services are rendered. Because this is a comprehensive and customized partnership, your school will pay per semester, not per field trip. The Urban Ecology Center will send two invoices to your school for $1880 each upon completion of half your field trips (fall semester) and remaining half your field trips (spring semester).
